Question: What are the major types of air masses in North America and how do they move?

- Pressure system - large body of circulating air with high pressure in its center and low pressure outside the system.
- Pressure system - large body of circulating air with low pressure in its center and higher pressure outside the system.
- Masses - large bodies of air that have uniform temperature.

Formed over water

- Pressure continually moved

- warm front - m

- cold air

- occluded front - warm air mass is completely de formed from large contaminated clouds