Overview: Latin II is a continuation of the study of classical Latin using a reading approach to language acquisition. Students will learn more advanced grammar, vocabulary and culture through readings about a Latin family and their experiences in 1st century A.D. Rome. Students will continue to build their English vocabulary by making connections between English words and their Latin roots. They will explore the influence of the ancient Romans on modern culture through history, art and culture.

Materials: Students will use the Ecce Romani Units I and II textbook. Students are asked to be prepared in class with writing utensils and paper for notes and exercises. Students will also be asked to keep a notebook for this class. Online resources and Canvas will also be used as part of the course. Other materials needed for assignments during the year include: notebook, pencils, highlighterents sBT/F3 1241 RG[p)4(enc)(IIs)-2(,)]TETQq0.0000092 0 612 79 reW*nBTculture
