

Administration of Medication

Medications should be given in the following order:
1. Oral
2. Subcutaneous
3. Intramuscular
4. Intravenous
5. Inhalation
6. Rectal
7. Topical
8. Ocular
9. Vaginal
10. Intrathecal
11. Intracranial
12. Intracardiac
13. Intraosseous
14. Intraarterial
15. Intra-aortic
16. Intra-arterial
17. Intra-arterial
18. Intra-arterial
19. Intra-arterial
20. Intra-arterial

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move

When giving medication, the nurse should:
1. Check the medication order
2. Check the patient's name
3. Check the patient's room number
4. Check the patient's date of birth
5. Check the patient's allergies
6. Check the patient's vital signs
7. Check the patient's level of consciousness
8. Check the patient's ability to swallow
9. Check the patient's ability to breathe
10. Check the patient's ability to move