Weather and Climate Tic-Tac-Toe Menu

Create a flipbook that describes each layer of the atmosphere. Be sure to add a colored picture on each page of the book.	Create a cloud brochure that details the type of clouds and what type of weather they are associated with. Be sure to add at least 5 pictures	What does a meteorologist do? What does a person have to do to become a meteorologist? Research to find out! Use the information you receive to create an advertisement for a local college to promote becoming a meteorologist.
Venus is considered to be Research the atmosphere of both planets and create a Venn Diagram to compare Earth and Venus.	Create a 3-Dimentional Map that will display all of the types of global winds and where they are located. Write a description of each type of wind and how it affects the weather.	Complete weather map QC code activity (see Handout)
You are the new image consultant for the superhero, name because his superpowers greatly resemble the characteristics of the troposphere. Create a comic strip about his latest adventures.	Design a brochure that is a public service announcement to educate the public about the worst severe weather threat in Georgia. Include possible causes, possible dangers, and the best options for coping with the weather occurrence.	Replicate the cloud in a bottle experiment. Use the Mini-Science Fair PPT template to show how you completed each step. Be sure to include pictures and a data table.