DISCRIMINATION / HARASSMENT REPORTING

The Richmond County School System (RCSS) does not

Discrimination on the basis of sex is prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This includes sexual harassment, sexual violence and discrimination based on pregnancy, parental status, and sex stereotypes (such as such the theyare attracted or are in relationships with persons of the same sex).

Any student, employee, parent, or applicant for employment, or other individual who believes he/she/they has been subjected to discrimination or harassment by another student or employee of the School System based upon any of the factors listed above, or any other basis protected by federal or state law, should promptly report the same to an administrator, or supervisor in whom he/she/they has confidence, who will then implement RCSS procedures regarding complaints of discrimination or harassment.

Allegations of discrimination or harassment based on sex (including pregnancy) should be reported verbally or in writing to the school Title IX Contact. To access the Complaint Form, please visit the following link: <https://www.rcboe.org/Page/62245>.
